LYME FINE JEWELLERY

Celia Weinstock, founder of Lyme Fine Jewellery, has appointed Phyllis Walters to launch and develop her debut collection of orient and nature inspired luxury jewellery. A bright new talent in the bespoke jewellery market, Celia Weinstock creates jewellery on commission alongside themed collections, hand-making each piece with precious and semi-precious gemstones set in 18k gold. Taking inspiration from Art Deco, Naturalistic and ancient Asian motifs, Celia's designs evoke the elegance and style of historical and cultural eras, and combine a sense of old world glamour with a contemporary edge. In this, her debut collection, Celia has used designs inspired by European monarchy and cites Buddhist references in a reflection of her Eastern influences alongside elegant leaf motifs. Celia mixes coloured golds; (100 per cent gold, no elements mixed, or added), pink, grey, brown, black and yellow, resulting in what is essentially a unique and contemporary take on fine jewellery design. www.lymefinejewellery.com
