New brand for women like us

IF you refuse to slavishly follow fashion but despair of finding easy, flattering pieces that don't veer into frumpy territory, breathe a sigh of relief...

Womenlikeusclothing.com is a new brand designed by two mature women who know how to dress. One half of the duo is Tina Malhamé, ex-designer of Next, Monsoon and Per Una.

This striped and pin-tucked Bluebell boyfriend shirt is £35.
